Readings for April 5, 2026
Easter Sunday

Sacred Text
Acts 10:34-41

Then Peter began to speak: "I now realize how true it is that God does not show favoritism but accepts from every nation those who are guided by humble hearts… You've heard stories of how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with a Spirit of courage, and how he went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed... We are witnesses of everything he did… but God raised him from the dead on the third day and caused the Christ to be seen. He was not seen by all the people…

Another Sacred Text
from Learning to Walk in the Dark
by Barbara Brown Taylor

… but I have courted the Beloved long enough to know what it is like to receive a divine visit: it is like coming home after a long time away; it is like being held by someone with all the time in the world; it is like remembering a dream that opens a door. Earlier in my life I wanted more specificity than that. I wanted a divine parent who would give me direct answers, clear guidance, and specific tasks. Now that I have accepted responsibility for supplying those things myself, it is enough to step away from them from time to time, resting in the presence of the Beloved who accepts all answers, covers all directions, and finishes all tasks.